

Resume for Ms. Charlie Toledo, CMT, CHT

PO Box 5386, Napa CA.

Voice # (707) 256-3561 e-mail: Suscol@i-café.net

Charlie Toledo is of Towa descendant, native to New Mexico. She is the Executive Director of the Suscol Intertribal Council a community-based organization (501©3) incorporated in 1992 located in Napa, California. She also has been in private practice as a certified masseuse, certified hypnotherapist and meditation teacher since 1982. She has extensive experience as public speaker, presenter and community organizer in regional, statewide, national and international forums. She has over twenty years in alternative healthcare fields, as well as background in consultation for problem solving and stress reduction for individuals, families, and corporations. She has a lifelong commitment to social justice and International work on Human Rights with consultative status to the United Nations.

CURRENT AFFILIATIONS:

-Suscol Inter-tribal Council, Director (1992-current)

-California Action Women's Agenda (CAWA), Board and speakers bureau (1996-current)

-Women's Intercultural Network, Board Member (1996-present)
Chair person (2002-05)

-DQU, Native American Community College, Board of Trustees, Executive Board (1997- 2003)

-Coalition of Native American Assoc. (1997-2003)
(CIBA, Deer Knuckle Soc., Ya-Ka-Ama, Native American Conservancy, Suscol)

-Napa Valley Alliance for Arts and Culture (1998-2004)

- Community Technology Foundation of California, Executive Board of Directors (secretary), Nominating and Financial committees (1999-2007)

-Napa County Coalition of Non-profit Organizations, Drug and Alcohol subcommittee member (2000-2004)

1995 Women of Color, Oakland, Ca.- represented indigenous people at UN International Conference on women, Beijing, China.

2000 Women's Intercultural Network, San Francisco, Ca. delegate to Beijing+5
Beijing, China.

2001 U.S. delegate to Uganda, East Africa on behalf of Human Rights for Women and children. Participated in creation of video-documentary.

2001 Produced Pomo-Maori Cultural exchange (14 Pomo traditional dancers travel to New Zealand hosted for two weeks by Maori People).

2003 U.S. delegate to Afghanistan to assist in organization of emerging woman leaders to participate in constitutional rebuilding. Participated in creation of video-documentary.

1999- 2003 American Indian Women's Network Annual retreat, Bass Lake, California. Retreat committee facilitator and presenter.

2004- American Indian Training Institute, Annual women's retreat 1-day workshop/
Sacramento, CA

2005 Beijing+10 United Nations delegate in New York City

2005 July Inter-religious International Foundation for World Peace honored Peace Ambassador award for a lifetime commitment to peace in South Korea.