

Soul Moves®

Paths to Creative Change

Dancing the Wild Woman Archetype

Reclamation of the Natural Soulful Feminine

Intuition-Creativity-Sensuality-Vital Energy

March 8-9, 2008

Sat & Sun

10am-5:30pm

In Moss Beach (10 miles North of Half Moon Bay)

Dance-Power of Nature-Mask Making-Storytelling-Inner Journeys-Ritual-Art

Return-Remember-Release-Resolve-Revise-Restore-Retrieve-Revitalize-Reclaim

You are invited on a transformational and healing adventure. Explore your connection to earth elements through encounters in nature: mountains, ocean and enchanted forest. Invoke your power animal and fan your creative fire through inner journeys and mask-making.

Claim, liberate & dance your wild woman!

010Jacqueline Parsons- Soul Moves® founder- is a movement-based transformational practitioner. She travels internationally with immersion in Shamanic work in the Amazon jungles & leads classes, workshops, retreats & sacred journeys in California, Hawaii, Ecuador & Peru. B.A. Degree in Transpersonal Psychology & certificates in Master NLP, Dream Re-Entry, Timeline Therapy, & Hypnotherapy. www.soulmoves.net

Lauren Adorno-Weatherford - Urban Shaman and Reiki Master, Healer of the Heart and Mind; holds a B.A. Degree in Social Ecology, is a graduate of Lynn Andrews School for Sacred Arts and Training, and has recently completed a 10 year shaman apprenticeship. <http://wingsoflight.homestead.com/index.html>

Cost: $220 prepaid by March 1st or $265 at the door (lunch included both days)

to register contact Jacqueline Parsons 650.743.0343 dance@soulmoves.net

All Soul Moves® events donate portions of proceeds to Africa through GRACE USA (www.graceusa.org)

